Itinerary Cards

Enterprising merchants' along the Dixie Bee Line route from Henderson to Madisonville, a distance of 46 miles, by way of Dixons, have gotten out an itinerary card, one side for the trip south and the other north, giving the toute in great detail. Every cross road is pointed out, every church, schoolhouse or rough piece of road is set down and the traveler can refer to his pedome traveler can refer to his pedometer and tell where he is every mile of the route. At the towns Omer Menter the traveler is told where to do his trading, the cards being paid for by the advertisers and presented free to all travelers. Good idea to adopt in this county,-Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

The CURSE of wealth is that it destroys the spirit of ice. The man who does nothing because he enough to live on comfortably is no better than the man wa does nothing because he can beg or smoke his pipe on the bench by the poorhouse door. Both are leeches. They are not serving. They are being served. When you lose sight of the duty of serving you invite at once spiritual microbes of the most destructive character to come and breed in you. -Dr. Crane.
